

Mr Ebrima Cham is the Director General of the Gambian Agency for the Management of Public Works (GAMWORKS). The Agency has 50 staff and implements development projects on behalf of the Government of The Gambia and Development Partners such as the Islamic Development Bank, the World Bank, the African Development Bank and the OPEC Fund for International Development (OFID).

Mr Cham is a Member of the Board of Directors of the Gambia Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (PURA) and a Member of the Major Tender Board.

Mr Cham is also Past President of the African Association of Public Works Executing Agencies (AFRICATIP).

Before returning to The Gambia in March 2004 to work for GAMWORKS, Ebrima Cham was in the UK. He was a British Council Scholar and studied Civil Engineering at the University of Leeds, England, United Kingdom, before joining Consulting Engineers OVE ARUP & PARTNERS, in London, England. Whilst working for ARUP, Mr Cham undertook his professional training for the Institution of Civil Engineers and for the Institution of Structural Engineers. He is a Chartered Civil Engineer and a Chartered Structural Engineer.

Mr Cham has worked on a variety of major building and civil engineering projects in UK, Hong Kong and other countries. Mr Cham rose to the position of Associate, which was a considerable achievement, before he left ARUP for GAMWORKS.